

Principles of Dressage

Presenters

Peter Storr

Dressage has been an intrinsic part of Peter's life for over five decades. He has experienced the sport at the elite level as a rider, coach, and judge, giving him a well-rounded and comprehensive perspective. Peter is a 5* judge and has officiated at major championships, including the European Championships, World Championships, World Cup Finals, and the Olympic Games.

Andrew Gardner

FEI 5* judge Andrew Gardner is a List 1 judge, having been a member of the Judges' panel for over 25 years. He has officiated at many international events across the world such as FEI European and World Championships. He was a member of the working group that led to the formation of British Dressage, as well as previous Director where he served as Chairman of Judges for two terms and Chairman of International selection for seniors and U21's.

Becky Moody

European and Olympic medallist Becky Moody is set to join Peter Storr and Andrew Gardner as hosts. Becky has achieved 12 international wins, won more than 30 national championship titles. In 2024, Becky was part of the Olympic team in Paris winning bronze for Great Britain. Most recently, Becky placed third in the World Cup at Amsterdam and second at London. Becky also claimed her third victory at HOYS in the Future Elite Young Horse, this time on board her own eight-year-old Magic Dream.

